RAILROAD EXTENSION

Work Practically Completed on Fourth Street —First Car to Pass Over Today—Harmony in Railroad Circles Apparent

It began to look as if interesting matters might taanspire when on Tuesday evening, after the usual rush of the day on the Glendale branch of the Salt Lake Company system was over, a big engine and coach pulled up and stopped right across the Fourth street and Glendale avenue junction. It looked interesting because the engine had stopped just on the spot where it was necessary for Edward Harriman Goode's railroad track to cross the rails of the Salt Lake Company's line on its merry way down Fourth street. It was not long before Mr. Goode's private secretary, or the Glendale magnate himself (authorities differ as to details) appeared on the scene and gave assurance to the engineer of the big engine that the Glendale-Eagle Rock railroad had no designs whatever upon the peace and property of the Salt Lake Company, and that the obtrusiveness of the engine was uncalled for and unnecessary. The reasonableness of this statement appealed to the husky representative of that corporation and he agreed to communicate with headquarters and get permission to remove the rolling stock and himself from our peace-loving community. It proved to be too late, however, to catch the high official who issued the order, and like Casabianca of nutty memory, the engineer had to camp there all night, and incidentally traffic at Glendale avenue and Fourth streets was more or less impeded, as the city marshal, after sizing up the situation, wisely refrained from interference. On Tuesday morning Edgar Huntington Goode, either went into Los Angeles on his private road, or communicated his ultimatum by private wire to Salt Lake headquarters and very promptly thereafter the rolling stock rolled down hill toward Los Angeles, Casabianca at the throttle. By Thursday morning Messrs. Goode, Huntington, Clark and the Harriman interests formed a successful merger of their affairs for the time being, and as a result from the Pacific Electric side of town a bright new trolley wire was carried up over the newly laid rails and put in place from a perambulating derrick; while a Los Angeles Railway Company's engineer superintended the job of putting in the crossing over the Salt Lake Company's line and uninteresting dark blue peace settled down over the landscape.

Mr. Goode applied to the city trustees Wednesday evening for an extension of ten days' time in which to lay the Fourth street track, which was granted (the 16th being the limit within which to make the purchase good). This was to guard against accidents, unfavorable weather, etc., for as events proved, the line was completed within the time limit and the first car runs over the extension today. Mr. Goode informs us that as soon as he gets another car, he will make connections with every car on both Pacific Electric road in Glendale and the Los Angeles Railway Company's line at Eagle Rock, provided the latter company makes a slight change in running time, as he has cause to believe it will.

UNION EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN.

(Reported by Committee)

Almost two weeks of the campaign have passed and no one can estimate the amount of good which has been accomplished. There have been many conversions and many more are resting under deep conviction. As much or more good has been accomplished with the Christian people than any other class. They have had a vision of the possibilities of the Christian life and Christian service as they never had before. Say nothing about the people who have been converted —the churches will be much stronger than when Evangelist Henry came to Glendale.

The people of Glendale have found it true respecting Dr. Henry that "His impassioned speech electrifies all those who listen to him, and the power of a great orator is made manifest in the close attention which is paid to every word. He is a man of convictions, and he has the courage of his convictions."

The meetings at 3 o'clock are soul-stirring and arouse the Christian conscience to a great sense of responsibility.

The singing of Mr. Potts has been very effective and greatly appreciated. The sincerity and heart of the singing have won all hearts. And the playing of Mrs. Potts is as effective as the singing.

One thing is very noticeable about the leaders of these meetings and that is, there is no sensationalism or claptrap about them. They are workers of God and are presenting a common sense and winsome gospel to the people.

The coming week is the last week of the campaign. You cannot afford to miss these meetings.

Meetings every night, except Saturday and every afternoon except Monday and Saturday. There will be a prayer meeting in each church Tuesday 10 a. m. You will have to come early next Sunday afternoon and evening if you get a seat. Many were turned away last Sunday.

Remember, this is the last week of the campaign. Come!

REPORT OF BUILDINGS AND LANDS COMMITTEE OF THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

Your committee respectfully submits the following, formulated after careful consideration of the subject:

While it is desirable that the Tuesday Afternoon Club should own its lot and clubhouse, which would make possible increased usefulness of the club, yet, in the opinion of the committee, the attainment of this object would necessarily impose such a burden upon the members of the club that the efficiency of the various lines of work which represent an expenditure of time and money and which have received public commendation, would in consequence, be lessened.

The committee would, however, advise the consideration of any feasible project which may be suggested for the attainment of the desired result.

Several suggestions are offered by your committee: first, that this need of the club be made known to the public with the hope that some generous person will give a lot for the building of a clubhouse, which would enhance the value of adjoining property; second, that some public-spirited person or persons will erect an inexpensive suitable building which may be occupied by the club and which with the accompanying lot may be paid for by monthly installments; third, that concerts and various entertainments be given to raise a building and land fund; fourth, that each member of the club undertake to raise a certain amount by gift or individual exertion for this fund.

Already the club has had fifty dollars promised by Mr. A. K. Crawford towards a clubhouse.

The club also has a club house bank, containing the nucleus for a clubhouse fund, which the committee recommends should be accessible for contributions at each regular club meeting.

The committee does not consider it necessary or ever desirable to secure a lot in the heart of the business center, but rather a quiet location is recommended.

ALLETIA E. GOODE.
Chairman.

CITY TRUSTEES

Communication Regarding Storm Water Shade Trees Selected—Building Ordinance Amended—Time Extended for Completing Electric Road

The following bills were referred:

J. M. Sprinkle, labor St. dept.	$ 8.25
H. M. Miller, sundries	3.55
Dr. Stanley P. Black, exam. dog's brain	10.00
Western Elec. Co., supplies	44.90
D. MacDonald, freight & cartage	18.33
Pac. Lt. & Power Co., Dec. elec.	527.72

A tax rebate of $3.47 was allowed G. H. A. Goodwin. Request of Geo. B. Mock for an extension of time on completion of street work on Lomita avenue was granted. A communication was received and filed concerning drainage at Fifth and Brand boulevard. Map of Tract No. 711 was adopted. A resolution was adopted accepting the pepper tree for planting on Central avenue; the camphor tree on Lomita between Glendale and Adams street, and the black acacia on Adams between Third and Fourth streets. Certain street work was ordered done on Glendale avenue, also on Eighth street. A large number of demands referred last week were reported back approved.

The names of Dr. A. L. Bryant and Mrs. Ella C. Witham as members of the library board having been submitted for approval, their appointment was ratified. The ordinance governing the removal and construction of buildings was amended and passed final reading. An ordinance amending the ordinance establishing the rates to be charged for electricity was taken up and passed first and second reading. The street superintendent reported that it would not be advisable to turn any storm water west from Brand boulevard until the county was prepared to take care of it west of Central avenue. Manager of electric light department was instructed to have wall of transformer house waterproofed where necessary and to provide for drainage for storm water. The contractor on transformer house was authorized to use brick instead of concrete on walls of vault. The time for completing the work on Fourth street of constructing the electric railroad there was extended ten days.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

New students continue to come in; since the holidays the following have been added to the roll: Alex Badger, Oxnard; Edna Aikin, Oakland; Benton Baisley, Hemet; Margaret Hall, St. Rose's Academy; Byron Severance, Los Angeles; Jeff Davis Clark, Lexington, Ky.; Harry Robertshaw, Berkeley. The total enrollment now is 193. Gladys Anderson has left school, her parents having removed to Hollywood.

The students are taking a growing interest in Civics. One of the most popular recent additions to the library is a number of the works of Jacob Riis. The girls are showing fully as much interest as the boys; they are particularly interested in questions concerning health, the application of the pure food laws, etc.

The Rhetoricals continue to offer some exceptionally good features; among those recently given may be mentioned a talk by Lois Candee on "A Visit to Ellis Island;" (where the immigrants come in). A recitation by Nina Claver, "The Railroad Crossing;" a talk on "Bob" Burdette by May Church, and on the "Ballinger-Pinchot Controversy" by Ray Morrow. A series of oratorical contests is planned between classes with the idea of arousing a more general interest among a larger number of students that such affairs usually secure.

The students in the Senior Latin class have begun practice on a Latin play which is to be given early in February, the text having been written by last year's Latin class. All the Senior Latin classes in the High school of the county will be invited to witness the performance.

The faculty and students are equally proud of the two basket ball courts which Mr. Emery has completed and which they believe to be the best in Southern California. The courts are at the rear of the building and will accommodate both boys and girls teams.

The first league game of Girls Basket ball will be played on the new court this (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 between Glendale and Covina teams. The home team consists of Pearl Goode, Elis Tipton, Lois Graham, Emily Ellias, Myrtle Wood, Marie McDonald and Catherine Lennox. The boys game with Downey is postponed and will take place Saturday of next week, Taylor having a sprained ankle. The girls are beginning a series of games for class championship. The boys will do the same in the near future. The girls have taken up Volley Ball, a game which is becoming popular as affording fine exercise for students who are not able or do not care to play the more strenuous game of basket ball.

The laying of sidewalks which has been started is postponed on account of the weather, but will be resumed as soon as possible. Work will begin on tennis court soon.

The "Stylus," which this time will be the production of the Sophs, will be out in two weeks, now being on the press. Several students are out of school entertaining the chicken pox.

Miss Moore takes a leading part in the California Woman's Club High Jinks soon to be given in that city.

Elizabeth Burkett is at home on account of illness of a member of the family.

Miss Emma Williams entertains Miss Eleanor Clemmons of Pasadena for the week end.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

Mr. T. E. Townsend Injured.

Last Sunday about 11:40 a. m., Mr. T. E. Townsend, who resides at Somerset Farm, was just outside that place walking down Verdugo Road when two single teams traveling towards Los Angeles came along behind him. Mr. Townsend stepped back to let them pass. One of them, a horse and buggy driven by a man who was either drunk or criminally careless, in passing the other, pulled over to the side of the road Mr. Townsend was walking on, the horse going rapidly and struck him with the front wheel, knocking him into the gutter. In falling his foot twisted under him and was broken at the ankle. The driver of the other rig, Mr. Chas. H. McArthur of La Canada, stopped and assisted the injured man to his home at the residence of Mr. J. C. Sherer, near by, while the driver of the horse that ran down Mr. Townsend, never stopped to look back at the victim of his act. Dr. D. W. Hunt was called and the injured foot attended to. Mr. Townsend although quite an old man, is getting along as comfortably as could be expected and will no doubt be around again as soon as the injured bones have time to knit. Mr. McArthur, who witnessed the accident and was very indignant at the brutal act of the unknown driver and who went to considerable trouble to ascertain his identity, as yet without success, furnishes the following description and the editor of this paper will pay a reward for information which lead to his discovery: Age 50 or 55 years, height 5 ft. 10 inches, shaggy whiskers and mustache somewhat gray, coarse features, broad shoulders, raw boned and thin. Driving a rangy bay horse medium size, dark colored, new or freshly painted open buggy.

ANOTHER MAD DOG KILLED.

Mr. J. T. McClelland informs us that about noon on Thursday of last week, at his residence on First street west of Central, he shot a dog which gave evidence of being afflicted with rabies. A day or two ago he received a report from the Los Angeles health office where he had sent the brain of the animal for microscopic examination, that it was undoubtedly a "mad dog." The animal when first seen by Mr. McClelland was running down First street, it bit a dog belonging to him and at least one other in the immediate neighborhood. He has since killed his dog. This makes three mad dogs that have been killed in Glendale in as many weeks. The disease which was never known before in Southern California, has in some manner been introduced here and has broken out among dogs in many places. People should watch their dogs carefully and look upon all strange dogs with suspicion. Carelessness on the part of owners whose dogs are bitten is clearly criminal. No chances should be taken and the dog under suspicion should be killed or at least closely confined.

GROWTH OF POSTOFFICE BUSINESS IN GLENDALE.

There has been a steady growth at the local postoffice during the year 1909.

One new letter carrier was added Nov. 16th, making one foot and two mounted carriers. New territory was added on west and north sides. Since the addition of letter carriers the increase in ordinary paper and package mail has been very great. During the holidays from 4 to 5 pouches and from 10 to 14 tons of paper and package mail was received on a single incoming mail.

The stamp sales for the month of December amounted to $857.82. Money orders for $3,298.39 were sold, and nearly the same amount paid. Over 500 more pieces registered were handled the month of December, 1909, than the same month of 1908.

Much delay in getting mail out on time was caused by the fact that people fail to have their mail addressed to street and number. The first mail ready for delivery is that addressed to city address; that is, box or street addressed mail of all kinds.

NEW BASEBALL GROUNDS.

Under the supervision of Earl B. Valentine and C. F. Parker, a baseball diamond has been installed on Glendale avenue between Fourth and Fifth street. The grounds will be under the direction of the Glendale City Base Ball club, who will endeavor to have games there every Saturday hereafter. Wednesday afternoon the grounds were scraped and Thursday morning three teams were engaged in rolling. At this time the Glendale team is composed mostly of high school players, and the practice which these players get here will do much toward putting them in good condition for the games which their school team will play with outside school teams. The managers inform us that there wil be no Sunday baseball played on these grounds, and that all games will be conducted in a gentlemanly manner.

The Glendale team will cross bats with the Echo Park team on the Echo Park grounds this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The team would like a large crowd of rooters to accompany them to the city.

DEATH OF HERBERT D. KENNEDY.

Herbert D. Kennedy, a newspaper man, secretary to Mayor Harper during the latter's term of office, died at his home, Central avenue and Doran street, last Saturday. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, and later at the receiving vault in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

He leaves a widow and little daughter, Mildred, 12 years of age.

The annual dinner, which the Corps ladies always serve on the day of installation, was served about one o'clock and was enjoyed by one hundred and seventy-five persons. Guests were present from Los Angeles, Norwalk, Santa Ana, Long Beach, San Pedro, Texas and Iowa. A musical program was rendered following the dinner, patriotic songs and speeches were enjoyed and an address was delivered by W. J. Hibbert. This program was followed by an "experience" social when members of the Corps told in a humorous vein how each had assisted in liquidating the debt on G. A. R. hall. About $125.00 was donated to assist in cancelling the debt.

The annual installation of officers-elect of N. P. Banks Post and Corps is looked forward to by the members of these two patriotic societies and their friends, as one of the happiest and brightest for the few remaining comrades who were the brave and loyal defenders of our country and our flag.

The committee having this installation and dinner in charge and who rendered it such a charming success comprised Mrs. David H. Imler, Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt, Miss Cora Hickman, assisted by Mrs. Charles Snow, Mrs. W. B. Pratt, Mrs. W. J. Hibbert, Mrs. N. P. Ogier, Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mrs. J. W. Shuey, Mrs. J. R. Oscar Garman, Dana Goss and J. R. Goss.

FUNERAL OF MRS. RICARD.

The funeral of Mrs. Edith Ricard was held on Tuesday afternoon from the chapel of Pulliam undertaking establishment and was conducted by the rector of St. Mark's church. The deceased who was a native of England, has long been a sufferer from a most painful malady and has been greatly endeared to those who had the privilege of knowing her during her brief residence in Glendale. She was an example of Christian patience and fortitude and her faith in her divine Savior waxed stronger as life's shadows lengthened and the evening came and her work was seen to be done. "God grant to her eternal rest and peace and may light perpetual shine upon her."

Her husband accompanied the body to Denver, Colorado, for the interment. During her life time she has been a devout member of the church of her native land where a large circle of relatives reside.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

The club met in Guild Hall last Tuesday afternoon in business session and important matters were discussed and business transacted. Mr. E. G. Pack, past president of the club, was welcomed back after her six months' absence by the club members and had a happy speech of appreciation to make. A cup of tea was served after the formal meeting and a social time enjoyed.

GLENDALE, CAL., JANUARY 15, 1910

Mayor Alexander of Los Angeles has we believe made a happy choice in appointing Messrs. Chas. Silent and Henry W. O'Melveney, park commissioners. At least, they possess in common one good quality for the position, they are lovers of trees and have for more than the average amateurs knowledge of the subject.

Invariably about this time of year the buyers of bulk oil are more or less troubled by the water which shows up at the bottom of the can. It gets into lamps and oil stoves and aside from being a serious nuisance and a fraud, it is also more or less dangerous. Our local merchants disclaim any knowledge of the origin of the water but it gets into the product which they sell. In some way, and it does not seem that it should be impossible to discover who is responsible for it.

Fifteen cents a gallon is too much to pay for water even in Southern California.

We are informed by a local item in one of the leading (?) papers of Los Angeles that Paul McCormick, deputy district attorney, fell down several weeks ago and injured "one of his limbs." For wishy-washy use of the English language we commend this as a shining example. The unfortunate victim of the accident is supposed to have four "limbs." If the readers of the "great daily" that publishes the item care anything about Mr. McCormick at all, they care enough to wish to know whether he broke an arm or a leg, but have the knowledge withheld from them because an ignorant reporter, evidently just out of the seminary, does not know how to use the English language correctly.

The people should not jump at conclusions in regard to the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy, and they should hesitate a long time before deciding that the president is wrong in the position he has taken. The matter at issue is a complicated one and it is doubtful if one person out of a hundred who has already decided the matter in his own mind, has really investigated the subject. We admire Mr. Pinchot for the good work that he has done, but he and his partisans are somewhat rash in assuming that the president of the United States with a long experience as a lawyer and a judge and having the fullest information on both sides of the subject at his command, has made a mistake in his judgment. The truth of the whole matter will no doubt be threshed out and the public can well afford to suspend judgment.

THE EUCALYPTUS FAKE.

Several weeks ago this paper called attention to the absurd statements being circulated in regard to the profits of eucalyptus culture and warned would-be investors to go slow. In last week's issue we particularly referred to the advertisement of the "Miracle Tree" as published in certain magazines which ought to have known better than to sell their space to such a palpable fraud. Two or three days after our last article on the subject was written, a special committee of the Los Angeles Realty Board made a report confirming the ideas we had previously expressed, and exposing the misstatements and general unreliability of the American Forestration Company. This is the same concern that made a proposition to the city council of Los Angeles last November to pay half a million dollars for the privilege of planting eucalyptus along the line of the Owens River aqueduct. The committee found that the Forestration company started without funds, had an $18,000 mortgage on the land it was [illegible] and had spent $60,000 on advertising.

THE INSURGENTS "READ OUT."

A dispatch from Washington announces that the Republican "Whip," Mr. Somebody or otherwise, has dropped the "insurgent" congressmen from the party roll. Now is not that awful? Here we have been cherishing the pleasing delusion that the Republican party consisted of a few millions of voters in this land of the free, but alas, it is now to discover that it consists of Mr. Joseph Cannon, the senator from Rhode Island and a Mr. Something-or-other from Somewhere, who has just dropped the insurgents from the list of Republicans with the real old-fashioned dull thud. Now will those misguided representatives of a puissant constituency who have been declared politically dead, please have the decency to show by their demeanor that they are so! Will those erstwhile vigorous kickers in the upper house, the honorables Dolliver, Cummins, La Follette, Beveridge and a few more, please pretend to be dead whether they are or not, and thus preserve the status quo, the entente cordiale, the modus vivende, the corpus delictu and a few other things in foreign languages that are most fitting adjuncts to a statesman defunct!

But they will not. It's a pretty sure thing that La Follette will rise up to his full five feet six or thereabouts and in a voice that would wake the dead wake them. And every mother's son of them will tell Mr. Cannon and his partners in the concern of "The Republican Party Limited," that they will see him everlastingly lambasted and bastinadoed before they die. And likely as not they will, for the insurgents are not of such stuff as dreams are made of and instead of being only a handful of statesmen in the congress of the nation, who claim the privilege of occasionally doing a little thinking for themselves, their name is legion with others in reserve. There is a story somewhere told, found we believe in a Book once read in places other than the church, about a king who called his friends to a barbarian feast, and while revelry was at its height a hand appeared upon the wall and wrote in a foreign tongue words which liberally interpreted to fit the occasion may be translated thus, "Messrs. Cannon, Aldrich et al., you have been weighed and found wanting—go!"

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ON ANTI-TRUST LAWS.

It begins to look at last as if Mr. Taft had finally come down to hard work. His first annual message was full of information as to what the different departments were doing and had accomplished, but was otherwise of the "perfectly harmless" description. His special message sent in to congress last week on the anti-trust laws, contains many valuable suggestions as to what is necessary in the way of legislation to make the Sherman act and other laws for the regulation of trusts effective. A careful perusal of the message will explain why more has not been done in the way of curbing monopolies, particularly the transportation companies. Mr. Taft states very clearly the differenec between a combination of capital and a monopoly. He says:

"The increase in the capital of a business for the purpose of reducing the cost of production and effecting economy in the management, has become as essential in modern progress as the change from the hand tool to the machine," and

"Monopoly destroys competition utterly, and the restraint of the full and free operation of competition has a tendency to restrain commerce and trade."

One of the principal defects of the present law is found in the right given to the railroad companies to appeal to any court from a ruling of the Inter-State Commerce commission, resulting in various and confusing decisions. To meet this objection he recommends the creation of a special court consisting of five judges of the circuit court, to be called "The United States Court of Commerce," before which all questions concerning transportation companies, rates, etc., shall come.

He proposes that any shipper may make written demand on a transportation company for a rate and the company be compelled to give one; a penalty being fixed for any misstatement or omission. He recommends an amendment to the law by which the commission shall have authority of its own initiative, to act without waiting for a complaint from the shipper, before taking cognizance of any unjust or inequitable rate. As the law is at present, the carrier may stay its application almost indefinitely by appeal and dilatory action through the courts. It is proposed that when, in accordance to the provisions of the law, the carrier gives notice of an increase in a rate the commission may have power to postpone the date when it shall be effective, until investigation can be made to see whether it is justified. It is further proposed that the shipper be upheld in the right to select the route for his shipment. No transportation company shall be allowed to hold or acquire stock in any competing company. The commission shall be given power to compel the use of safety devices by the railroad companies. The president says that while some lawyers doubt the constitutionality of federal control in these matters, as being in conflict with the rights of the states, he has no doubt about it himself. His ideas about combinations of capital are expressed very clearly:

"I conceive that nothing could happen more destructive to the property of this country than the loss of that economy in production which has been and will be effected in all manufacturing lines, by the employment of large capital under one management. I do not mean to say that there is not a limit beyond which the economy of plant ceases; and where this happens, and combination continues beyond this point, the very fact shows intent to monopolize, and not to economize."

SOCIALISM.

One Purpose of Socialism.

Until we gain industrial freedom we remain as a nation one small part industrially free, the greater part slave. A nation divided against itself cannot stand. Socialism, therefore, in advocating industrial democracy is in perfect accord with the most fundamental principle of American life. Either apply the principles of democracy all along the line or democracy itself must eventually fall all along the line. —The Rev. George R. Lunn, in the Atlantic Review of February.

This country must send abroad $600,000,000 a year as interest on debts and dowries, for tourists' expenses and immigrants's remittances. To pay interest upon the dowries of six American women 20,000,000 pounds of cotton must cross the seas this year. To pay the rentals of one absentee landlord of New York will take 5,000,000 bushels of wheat.—Taken from the New York World.

(The caption of last week's Socialist contribution should have been "The Immorality of Capitalism," not the "Immunity," etc.—Ed.)

Is The Times Turning Socialist?

In the editorial department of the L. A. Times of recent date an article appeared entitled, "One Type of Human Parasite," from which we infer there are others. He refers to a lawyer who was arrested for forging a note, and says: "It is a type of man who live off their fellowmen, who are neither producers nor in anyway useful to producers. They are men who always deep in business schemes and propositions, and who pose as promoters. They think they perform a service when they bring together the man who wants to get something for nothing from the man who wants to sell nothing for something. A siege of bad luck drives them to unlawful acts that finally lands them in the pen and this is what they deserve."

Please note the editor's definition of the "human parasite," "They are neither producers nor are useful to producers."

It is strictly a Socialistic definition. But pause to think a moment how many that sweeping definition will include besides the forging lawyer or the get rich quick promoter. If we were to eliminate that class by turning them into useful producers the big office buildings in the cities would be about emptied.

Again on December 27 The Times says editorially, "That the interests of society are paramount to all personal considerations." Who will take issue with him on that sentiment? And yet the whole of the Socialist philosophy is built on that truth.

And in the magazine department of the same paper Dr. Harry Brooks recommends the reading of a Socialist book published by the great Socialist publishing house of Chicago, Charles H. Kerr & Co. He thinks Rockefeller would accomplish more good with some of his millions circulating this book broadcast than by making war on the hook worm.

EVERYTHING COMES OUR WAY.

Balloon "New York" Makes Landing Here.

Glendale and vicinity was treated Saturday last to a sight of one of the prettiest and most successful balloon flights ever made in Southern California. The big balloon "New York" left the earth at Pasadena at 2:53 p. m., rose to a height of 2000 feet or so and sailed along the mountain range over Eagle Rock and Glendale, landing at the corner of San Rafael avenue and Dryden street, west of Casa Verdugo, at 4:40. The day was ideal and the landing was made with scarcely a jolt to remind the passengers that they were on terra firma again. Small boys and citizens of larger growth sprang out of the sandbed of the wash, up from the vacant lots and swarmed out of nearby houses, and in an incredibly short time from other portions of the valley so that the basket had scarcely touched the earth until it was in the grasp of willing helpers who kept it from soaring again skyward while the gas was let out of the big silken bag. Those aboard were Clifford B. Harmon, pilot; George B. Harrison, George Deussler, Miss French and Miss Marie Campbell. The balloon carried thirty sacks of sand ballast, only ten being used. Friends of the aeronauts followed the route of the balloon in autos and carried them back to Pasadena.

TROPICO GRAMMAR SCHOOL ITEMS.

An interesting and profitable meeting of the Tropico Parent-Teachers' association was held in the Tropico grammar school Friday afternoon of last week. The address by Mrs. Craveling of Los Angeles was especially enjoyed. Mrs. Russell, president of the Sixth street association of Glendale, talked impressively on Federation, which address resulted in a decision being reached by the Tropico association to federate with the Glendale organization so that the meetings can be held in the evenings and the fathers be allowed to attend.

Twenty-four dollars and fifty cents was raised for the purpose of installing a drinking fountain in the school. Mrs. Martha McClure, principal of the school, and Mrs. D. H. Imler were appointed a committee to investigate the affair.

The picture, "The Old Mill," was purchased by the association and will be presented to the class bringing the most mothers to the meetings of the association during the year. Miss Ingraham's class won the picture this month.

A number of new pupils have come into the school since the holidays. The enrollment now numbers 220, probably the largest ever known by this school.

The school baseball team went to West Glendale Wednesday afternoon and defeated the team of the school of that place by the score of 9 to 5.

THE O. K. DAIRY.

Is pleased with the many "New Year Resolutions" to use only O. K. Milk, and the only thing that bothers them now is to have milk enough for all.

Remember, O. K. stands for Purity, Cleanliness, Integrity. L. E. Elliott is a man of life-long experience in handling cattle. N. L. Elliott, his son, grew up in the business, and two years ago came here direct from Iowa Agricultural college, where he took a thorough course in animal husbandry, and especially in judging cattle both for beef and dairy purposes.

This practical experience and knowledge should insure a collection of healthful cattle, wholesome feed and an ideal dairy. Look them up! 1w

Mrs. Pierce of Los Angeles brought out for dinner at Castle Crags last Tuesday a party of friends who greatly enjoyed their first visit to the valley.

There will be Young People's Rally, from 15 years of age up, next Tuesday 3:30 p. m., in Filger's Opera house. Mr. Potts will sing and other special music will be provided.

The old High School building has been sold to Mr. Fairchild and is being dismantled. It is reported that the price paid was about $600. The building had to be removed to make way for the brick block being erected by Mr. Wright.

Master Arthur Haines entertained several friends at his home on Verdugo road Wednesday evening. The hours were passed in games and music and the rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion. The affair was given to celebrate this young man's 15th birthday.

Misses Winefred Sadler and Florence Ward, accompanied a party of Los Angeles friends up Mt. Wilson last Sunday. The company ascended in early morning and returned in the evening. The girls report three feet of snow at the summit, and are emphasizing the fact that when at the top they indulged in numerous vicious snow battles.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Sixth street school met Friday, January 14th, at 3 p. m. Miss Neva Chappell, physical instructor at the Y. W. C. A., Los Angeles, spoke on the subject "Girls." A picture had been presented to the association to be given to the room having the largest number of mothers in attendance. Light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

The Glendale Steam Laundry, which has been run for a year or more past by Messrs. Grady and Davis, has been sold by them to Messrs. E. H. Howard and R. F. Wallace, who come here from Sacramento. Messrs. Howard and Wallace have had several years' experience in the business and are so well impressed with the business outlook and other conditions that they have concluded to settle down here and grow up with the town. The laundry is now running to almost its full capacity and the new firm contemplate making additions to the establishment in the near future.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 1st, Mr. and Mrs. D. MacDonald entertained a party of friends at heir pleasant home on Louise street. Games, refreshments of most appetizing character and a delightful spirit of good fellowship passed the evening away all too quickly. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Tatlow, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson, Mr. Lee Murdock, Miss Maud Lund, Miss Belle Mason, Mr. Chas. Wicks, Mr. Frank Guernsey, Mrs. and Miss Drinkwater, Miss Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cornstalk, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dodge and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shirdledecker, Mrs. A. Rodgers.

The teachers' training class for Sunday school work met as usual Wednesday afternoon. A very large attendance was present.

The lesson taught was "Rebekah at the Well." The purpose of the lesson was brought out in a very practical manner by the leader. A realization that every act of kindness has a part in building a character that may be pleasing to God and man, as the pupils see that the lessons of the Bible apply to their own lives in these beautiful Old Testament stories, it will teach them to look to it as a counsellor. They will be drawn to Him who has thus revealed Himself.

Mrs. T. A. Teschan will teach the next lesson, "How Esau Forfeited His Birthright." All Sunday school teachers are invited to come.

Mrs. W. O. Rogers entertained last Monday the teachers of the Rock Dale school.

Mrs. Werden who was taken ill at Mrs. Buck's home last Saturday, is better.

Mr. Daniels of New York has come to spend two weeks with his brother on Highland avenue.

Mr. B. Warren of Los Angeles has secured employment with the Eagle Rock Meat Market.

Mr. Hyatt and Mark Keppel, county school superintendent, visited the school last Thursday.

Mrs. Thompson left suddenly for the North with her son. It is understood that they go because of the serious illness of a near relative.

The final decision of the Occidental College to accept the proposed land for campus offered them here, is received with great satisfaction by the people of the valley. It means a high class of development in the near future and it is understood that a guarantee of a five-cent car fare was one of the inducements which clinched the bargain. Adjoining property has taken quite a jump, but notwithstanding the prices a number of sales are reported.

The pastor will preach next Sunday morning from the subject: "John, the Baptist; His Place in Sacred History, His Mission, His Characteristics; Was He Elijah?"

Last Sunday seemed almost like a second edition of Christmas in both Sunday school and church. Buttons and diplomas were given to those faithful in attendance at Sunday school and special presents to those who had committed to memory the golden text for the year. Our superintendent was the recipient of a beautiful picture, "Peace," as a token of love and esteem from the Sunday school. At the morning preaching service, Miss Catherine Hobbs, who has so faithfully served as pianist for church and Sunday school, was presented with a beautiful silver-mounted toilet set.

The girls of our immediate classes in Sunday school will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church to discuss plans for greater usefulness for the coming year.

The boys' brigade movement started well. It is proposed to give the boys one month's trial and if they wish to continue, a permanent organization will be effected.

Our Sunday school attendance reached close to the 100 mark last Sunday.
